

BROOKLYN COUNTY'S DEMOCRATIC ROW.

New York Custom-House Employees Accused of Frenzied Activity.

Recorder W. F. Downs, of Binghamton, was among the callers at the headquarters of the Democratic State Committee at the Hoffman House to-day. He said that the factions fight within the Democratic party in Brooklyn County was a very serious one, and might cost the State ticket a great many votes.

"The State Committee," he continued, "should take some action. There are two Democratic county tickets in the field, and two Democrats are running for Assembly. Brooklyn is a Republican county, and if the split in the Democratic party continues I am certain that it will cost the State ticket hundreds of votes. The entire trouble has been caused by the 'pernicious activity' of Federal office-holders. They have used their positions to control caucuses and overawe delegates to nominating conventions. The honest Democrats of Brooklyn County are thoroughly disgusted with the office-holding bosses. I have laid before the State Committee a manifesto signed by the most prominent Democrats of our county, protesting against the usurpation and bossism of the Federal office-holders."

The manifesto is a long one. Here are some extracts from it:

"For about two weeks preceding the so-called Democratic Convention, First Deputy Collector of the Port of New York, Charles Davis, Mr. James C. Travis, of the Treasury Department, and Messrs. King, Davidson, Lee, Terhune, Tuttle, Larkins, and Sullivan, of the New York Custom-House, appointed in reality of the most prominent Democrats of our county, spent their time in efforts—by every species of political cajolery, entreaty, intimidation, trickery and chicanery, in short, by all the tricks of the most unscrupulous partisan politics—to manipulate the primaries in the interest of Mr. Davis. The Postmasters throughout the county were generally similarly employed."

"These so-called Democratic County Conventions were Democratic only in name. It was the fruits of Custom-House interference in its primaries and was run by Custom-House interference when assembled, for no other purpose than to give a fictitious and fraudulent vindication to Collector Davis."

"How can clerks be expected to be efficient in the Custom-House at New York when they spend weeks in Brooklyn County in running caucuses and conventions?"

"Certainly eight men from the New York Custom-House, besides Deputy Collector Charles Davis, were there before and during the conventions. Since June Mr. Davis has spent more time in this county than in New York. He is the dispenser of the Federal patronage for the southern tier of counties."

Wed a Divorced Man for Fun.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 15.—News of a singular marriage in Fairfield County last week is creating a good deal of talk throughout the State, though every effort has been made to suppress the news. Edward Foss, a station agent, forty years old, was out walking with a party when he met Miss Clara Foster, nineteen years old, who was driving with a C. H. Foss, who is a Justice of the Peace. The conversation turned on marriage, and one of the party laughingly suggested that Mr. Foss and Miss Foster be married. Mr. Foss, who is a very much respected citizen, and Mr. Foss performed the ceremony. Next day the serious nature of the affair dawned upon them and people in the village here are very much amused. The bride is the daughter of N. C. Foster, a millionaire lumberman. She has since the occurrence kept her room at home, and is greatly distressed. The groom of the couple see no way out of it but divorce. Mr. Foss was formerly married, but was divorced last year.

Last Honors to Gen. Kilpatrick.

Visitors began to arrive at the City Hall early this morning to take a last look at the features of Gen. John Kilpatrick, whose body is lying in state in the Governor's room, but they saw only the flag-covered casket laden with flowers and palm branches. The casket has not been opened since yesterday morning, when a number of the dead soldier's relatives gazed for the last time on his face, nor will it be opened again. The guard of honor from Kilpatrick Post 143, G. A. R., is still on duty.

The members of the Post will assemble at their headquarters to-morrow morning at 8.15 o'clock and proceed at once to the City Hall to escort the body to the West Shore depot, where it will be placed on the 11.15 train for West Point. The pallbearers will be Gen. R. A. Alger, ex-Governor of Michigan, Gen. William T. Sherman, ex-Senator of Ohio, Gen. John Hammond, ex-Senator of A. Hobart, and Gen. H. W. Stoughton. The line of march will be through Broadway to Union Square, around the Washington Monument, down Fifth Avenue to Canal street to the DeWittes street ferry.

A Fight in a Fight.

A lively row between two well-dressed men attracted a large crowd in Union Square Park at 2.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon near the cottage. Park Officer Patrick Mann wedged his way through the gathering and parted the principals, who immediately accused each other of assault. It was Mr. A. J. Jergens, a florist, of 21 West Union square, and the other Edward Loh, an Italian waiter, of 21 West Twenty-fourth street. According to the stories told, Jergens was sitting on a bench with a friend when Loh and two ladies walked by. Jergens spoke to his friend in German, saying: "Let us play match on these two women."

Pols understood the language and said: "I think you had better mind your own business and let respectable ladies alone."

Jergens replied, and then the two men used their fists. In the Madison Market Police Court this morning Justice Gorman fined Jergens $10 and discharged Pols.

SAFE PROFITABLE INVESTMENT.

Some Questions Answered by the Hartford Post About the Tortillita Mines.

PREFERRED DIVIDENDS.

Since the article descriptive of the Tortillita Gold and Silver Mining Company appeared in the Evening Post, the publishers have been deluged with inquiries concerning the integrity of the company and with requests respecting the value of the company's property. We are glad to be able to reassure all inquirers and others interested in this subject. The publishers of the Post enjoy a personal acquaintance with Mr. Joseph H. Reall, President of the Tortillita Gold and Silver Mining Company, and know him to be an able and honorable gentleman. We have the fullest confidence in his integrity and ability, either personally or as representing the Tortillita Company, to perform faithfully whatever contract he may make.

In regard to the company's mining properties the facts are known. The Tortillita group of mines contains a vast deposit of gold and silver ore. They have for some time been under development in a small way; that is, with two or three head-windmills and a five-stamp mill. They have produced enough of the precious metals to more than pay all expenses and prove their great value. The company is now contracting for the introduction of suitable machinery, and for the purchase of three twenty-stamp mills, which will multiply the present producing capacity of the mines ten times without largely increasing the expense. To pay for these improvements they are selling a given amount of stock—a sensible and wise proceeding.

The management are giving their enterprise the widest publicity through the press, and thus courting the closest investigation of their property.

The company will be making five or six thousand dollars a day as soon as they get their fifty or sixty stamps in the spring. Only 60,000 shares of the 200,000 preferred dividend stock are for sale now at par, $25 each. The balance of the stock is held by the company, and the price above $25 per share will be divided among the purchasers of these 60,000 shares and the present stockholders. The 200,000 shares are given control of the property until the dividends exceed the purchase price. Tortillita is as safe an investment as Government bonds, and immensely more profitable. Address: 26 Congress Street, Boston.
